

VULCANIZABLE RUBBER MIXES

ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE

The present invention relates to vulcanizable rubber mixes which, apart from the rubbers, contain O,O-bis-(alkyl)-dithiophosphoric acid polysulfides and primary and/or secondary amines, which are characterized in that they may be vulcanized without release of nitrosamines with a high crosslink density and a high proportion of short sulfur bridges.